

Improving detection and management of non-alcoholic fatty liver disease (NAFLD) in primary care and the community

Co-hosted by Fuse, the Centre for Translational Research in Public Health

| Time | Presentation | Speaker |
|-------------|--|---|
| 9:30-9:40 | Welcome and Introduction | Professor Leah Avery Professor of Applied Health Psychology, Teesside University Lead: NIHR funded Tees Valley Research Partnership |
| 9:40-9:55 | Overview of Non-alcoholic Fatty Liver Disease (NAFLD) | Dr Tim Hardy Consultant Hepatologist, South Tees Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust Co-lead: NIHR funded Tees Valley Research Partnership |
| 9:55-10:10 | Detecting NAFLD in Primary Care | Dr Stuart McPherson Consultant Hepatologist, Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust |
| 10:10-10:25 | Management of NAFLD | Dr Kate Hallsworth Senior Research Physiotherapist, Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust |
| 10:25-10:40 | Experiences of Living with NAFLD | Yvonne Gray Public Member with NAFLD |
| 10:30-10:50 | Breakout Room Discussion: Improving detection and management of NAFLD in the Tees Valley | Facilitated by Members of the Tees Valley Research Partnership Team |
| 10:50-11:25 | Discussion Feedback and Q & A | Professor Leah Avery |
| 11:25-11:30 | Close | Professor Leah Avery |